Dear Cathy,

At the top of my list for new programming that The Prizery presented last year was "Soundworks", an a cappella men's group. The group is made up of expert singers from all over Virginia. The artistic qualities abound, precise pitch, varied and quality choice of programming and simple/appropriate staging. Embedded in the full ensemble is a delightful "quartet" that presented some wonderful material in the comedy vein.

I would recommend that all the arts centers in the state take a look at them. They not only present excellent quality but they are very affordable. They were pleasant and professional at every turn.

We look forward to bringing the group back during our Fall 2010 season.

Best,

Chris
